Defendant Robert Alin Pilkington (“Mr. Pilkington”) hereby provides the following responses to the Requests for Production, Set One, propounded by plaintiff Moog Inc. (“Plaintiff”), as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

These responses and any documents provided are made solely for the purpose of this action. In responding to the document requests, Mr. Pilkington will endeavor to produce those responsive documents presently known by or available to Mr. Pilkington which are not privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure. However, the discovery, investigation and preparation for trial of Mr. Pilkington with respect to this action has not been completed as of the date of these responses. Mr. Pilkington anticipates that ongoing discovery and investigation may uncover documents not presently known, but upon which Mr. Pilkington necessarily will rely in this action. Consequently, the responses contained herein are not intended to and shall not preclude Mr. Pilkington from relying upon documents uncovered during ongoing discovery and investigation related to this action, whether or not identified or produced herein.

The responses set forth by Mr. Pilkington are subject to corrections for inadvertent errors, mistakes, or omissions. Mr. Pilkington reserves the right to assert additional objections as appropriate and to further supplement these objections and responses if Mr. Pilkington deems necessary.

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 1:

All Documents and Communications between Kim and Pilkington, from January 1, 2021 until present, Concerning Moog, including but not limited to any Moog Confidential Information.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 1:

Mr. Pilkington objects to the Request on the following grounds: (a) the Request is vague and ambiguous as to the term “Moog Confidential Information”; (b) the Request is overbroad as to time and scope as a result of the phrases “[a]ll Documents and Communications” and “from January 1, 2021 until present,” and, therefore, is oppressive and burdensome; (c) the Request seeks information that is neither relevant to the subject matter of this action nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence; (d) the Request seeks information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work-product doctrine, and any other applicable privilege or protection; (e) the Request seeks information protected from disclosure to the extent that it seeks documents that contain information of a confidential and/or proprietary nature; and, (f) Mr. Pilkington further objects to producing documents to the extent they are equally available to Plaintiff.

Without waiving and subject to the previously mentioned objections, Mr. Pilkington will produce all non-privileged, responsive documents in his possession, custody and control, if any, besides the information that Mr. Pilkington sent to Plaintiff on April 1, 2022 pursuant to paragraph 2 of the Stipulation and Court’s Order Re. Production of Information, Data Preservation and Forensic Searches. (Dkt. #25 and 28). Any such responsive documents not previously delivered to Plaintiff that contain confidential information will only be produced once the parties execute a protective order and are designated thereunder as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential.”

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 2:

All Documents and Communications between Kim and Pilkington, through the date Kim started employment at Skyrise, Concerning Skyrise.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 2:

Mr. Pilkington objects to the Request on the following grounds: (a) the Request is overbroad as to time and scope as a result of the phrases “[a]ll Documents and Communications” and “through the date Kim started employment at Skyrise,” and, therefore, is oppressive and burdensome; (b) the Request seeks information that is neither relevant to the subject matter of this action nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence; (c) the Request seeks information protected from disclosure to the extent that it seeks documents that contain information of a confidential and/or proprietary nature. and, (d) Mr. Pilkington further objects to producing documents to the extent they are equally available to Plaintiff.

Without waiving and subject to the previously mentioned objections, Mr. Pilkington will produce all non-privileged, responsive documents in his possession, custody and control, if any, besides the information that Mr. Pilkington sent to Plaintiff on April 1, 2022 pursuant to paragraph 2 of the Stipulation and Court’s Order Re. Production of Information, Data Preservation and Forensic Searches. (Dkt. #25 and 28). Any such responsive documents not previously delivered to Plaintiff that contain confidential information will only be produced once the parties execute a protective order and are designated thereunder as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential.”

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 3:

All Documents and Communications to or from Kim or Pilkington, from September 1, 2021 to present, Concerning any electronic device that was connected to a Moog system, network, or computer, including but not limited to any desktop computer, laptop computer, external hard drive, USB drive, or thumb drive.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 3:

Mr. Pilkington objects to the Request on the following grounds: (a) the Request is overbroad as to scope as a result of the phrase “[a]ll Documents and Communications,” and, therefore, is oppressive and burdensome; (b) the Request seeks information that is neither relevant to the subject matter of this action nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence; (c) the Request seeks information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work-product doctrine, and any other applicable privilege or protection; and, (d) the Request seeks information protected from disclosure to the extent that it seeks documents that contain information of a confidential and/or proprietary nature.

Without waiving and subject to the previously mentioned objections, Mr. Pilkington will produce all non-privileged, responsive documents in his possession, custody and control, if any, besides the information that Mr. Pilkington sent to Plaintiff on April 1, 2022 pursuant to paragraph 2 of the Stipulation and Court’s Order Re. Production of Information, Data Preservation and Forensic Searches. (Dkt. #25 and 28). Any such responsive documents not previously delivered to Plaintiff that contain confidential information will only be produced once the parties execute a protective order and are designated thereunder as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential.”

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 4:

Documents sufficient to show the timing and duration of all phone calls between Kim and Pilkington from January 1, 2021 until present, including but not limited to phone logs and phone bills.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 4:

Mr. Pilkington objects to the Request on the following grounds: (a) the Request is overbroad as to time and scope as a result of the phrases “all phone calls between Kim and Pilkington from January 1, 2021 until present,” and, therefore, is oppressive and burdensome; (b) the Request seeks information that is neither relevant to the subject matter of this action nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence; and, (c) the Request seeks information protected from disclosure to the extent that it seeks documents that contain information of a confidential and/or proprietary nature.

Without waiving and subject to the previously mentioned objections, Mr. Pilkington will produce phone logs and phone bills from September 1, 2021 through the present that are sufficient to show the timing and duration of all phone calls between Misook Kim and Mr. Pilkington during that time period.
